

I am writing to voice my opposition to changing the current regulations and allowing fewer corporations to own more stations and newspapers in the same area. This is a dangerous plan and will limit the public's ability to obtain news and information that is unbiased. I don't want to be "Fox channeled" to death.